- Re-deployment
- Post-deployment

222d Base Support Battalion

Deployment

- Mixed emotions/relief
- Disoriented/overwhelmed
- Numb, sad, alone
- Sleep difficulty
- Security issues

Deployment Impact on Children

- Roller coaster of emotions
- Changes of household can be difficult for all.
- Left behind parent may be feeling overwhelmed initially and tired.

Strategies for Deployment Phase

- Encourage communication with deployed parent letters.
- Reduction in expectations may need to be a little lower, but keep routines as much as possible.
- Counseling groups if many students in one school are affected.

Deployment Facts

- Children adapt better if parents do
- Families that move away from the base do not adjust as well as those who are near for support
- School is a setting that remains the same for the child of a deployed soldier. Therefore it is an important part of their life.
